2.2 Interpretation

- (1) Reference to:
- (a) one gender includes the others;
 - (b) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; and
 - (c) a person includes a body corporate.
- (2) Except so far as the contrary intention appears in this constitution:
- (a) an expression has in this constitution the same meaning as in the Act; and
 - (b) if an expression is given different meanings for the purposes of different provisions of the Act, the expression has, in a provision of this constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Act.
- (3) “Including” and similar expressions are not words of limitation.
- (4) Headings and any table of contents or index are for convenience only and do not form part of this constitution or affect its interpretation.

3 Objects

- 3.1 The Company is established to take over the funds and other assets and liabilities of the Incorporated Association.
- 3.2 The objects for which the Company is established are:
- (1) to provide a strong voice to represent the interests of sustainable, innovative and ethical businesses in Australia and globally;
 - (2) to provide information and research that drives investment in future industries and the uptake of adaptive business models that take advantage of disruption;
 - (3) to build a community of future businesses and supporting organisations; and
 - (4) to provide a strong voice to represent the interests of the next generation of business.

4 Powers

[compare section 124]

- 4.1 The Company has all the powers of an individual and a body corporate but does not have the power to issue shares.
- 4.2 Despite rule 4.1 the powers of the Company are ancillary to and exercisable only to pursue the objects of the Company set out in rule 3.

5 Application of income and property

[compare sections 125 and 150]

- 5.1 The income and property of the Company, from wherever it is derived, must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company set out in rule 3.

6 No distribution to members

[compare sections 150 and 254SA]

- 6.1 No portion of the income or property of the Company may be paid directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to the members of the Company.

7 Limited liability

- 7.1 The liability of the members is limited.

8 Guarantee

- 8.1 Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute an amount not exceeding $100 to the property of the Company in the event of its being wound up while the member is a member or within 1 year after the member ceases to be a member, if required for payment:
- (1) of the debts and liabilities of the Company (contracted before the member ceases to be a member);
 - (2) of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
 - (3) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Membership

9 Number of members

9.1 The number of members for which the Company proposes to be registered is unlimited.

10 Membership

10.1 The members of the Company are:

- (1) the Foundation Members; and
- (2) any other persons the directors admit to membership in accordance with this constitution.

11 Categories of membership

11.1 The categories of membership are:

- (1) associate members;
- (2) full members; and
- (3) subject to rule 17, paid life members.

11.2 Additional categories of members, if recommended by the directors, may be created from time to time by the members in general meeting.

12 Membership categories

12.1 The membership of the Company will consist only of members that are either a body corporate or a Government Body. Individuals are not eligible for, and the directors will not accept applications from individuals for, membership of the Company.

12.2 Any body corporate or Government Body which satisfies such qualifications as are specified by the directors from time to time may apply for membership of the Company as either an associate member or a full member.

12.3 Despite anything in this constitution to the contrary:

- (1) an associate member has the right to receive notices of and to attend and be heard at any general meeting;
- (2) an associate member has a right to vote at any general meeting; and
- (3) the nominated representative of an associate member is not eligible to be appointed as a member director.

12.4 Despite anything in this constitution to the contrary:

- (1) a full member has the right to receive notices of and to attend and be heard at any general meeting;
- (2) a full member has a right to vote at any general meeting; and

- (3) the nominated representative of a full member is eligible to be appointed as a member director.
- 12.5 The directors may establish sub-categories (and may remove, combine or add new sub-categories) of full membership from time to time, with additional benefits as determined by the directors from time to time. Each sub-category of full membership will have all of the rights of full members under this constitution in addition to any other benefits that the directors determine.
- 12.6 For the purpose of rule 12.5, the following initial sub-categories of full membership are established (and the directors will determine the benefits to be associated with such sub-categories of full membership):
 - (1) "Corporate Member";
 - (2) "Premium Member"; and
 - (3) "Gold Member".

13 Form of application

- 13.1 An application for membership must:
 - (1) be in writing in a form approved by the directors (which may be in electronic form);
 - (2) set out whether the applicant is applying for associate membership or full membership (and if full membership is being applied for, what sub-category of full membership is being applied for);
 - (3) be signed by an authorised representative of the applicant (or completed and submitted by an authorised representative of the applicant, if the application is in electronic form); and
 - (4) be accompanied by any other documents that the directors require.
- 13.2 Body corporates or Government Bodies that apply for membership must nominate 1 person (nominated representative) to represent it in the Company. The application form must also state the name, address and contact details of the nominated representative.

14 Admission to membership

- 14.1 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after its receipt and determine, in their discretion, the admission or rejection of the applicant as a member of the Company.
- 14.2 The directors need not give any reason for the rejection of an application.
- 14.3 If an application for membership is rejected, the secretary must notify the applicant in writing.
- 14.4 If an applicant is accepted for membership, the secretary must:
 - (1) notify the applicant in writing; and
 - (2) request payment of:
 - (a) the application fee, if any, determined in accordance with rule 20; and

(b) the annual subscription, determined in accordance with rule 21.

14.5 The applicant becomes a member upon payment of the application fee, if any, and the annual subscription. The name and details of the member must be entered in the Register.

14.6 If payment of the application fee, if any, and the annual subscription is not received within 2 months after the date of the giving of the notice referred to in rule 14.4, the directors may revoke their acceptance of the applicant for membership.

15 Notification by members

15.1 If there is a qualification or requirement established for a category of membership, each member in that category of membership must promptly notify the secretary in writing of any change in their qualification to be a member of the Company.

15.2 Each member must promptly notify the secretary in writing of any change in the person nominated as its nominated representative under rule 13.2.

15.3 A person nominated as a nominated representative must consent to the nomination in writing.

16 Foundation members

16.1 Foundation Members who have signed this constitution before the Company is registered become full members of the Company on registration of the Company.

16.2 Foundation Members are not required:

- (1) to have any qualification for membership;
- (2) to pay any application fee; or
- (3) to pay an annual subscription until 1 July next occurring after registration of the Company.

16.3 Foundation Members must otherwise comply with this constitution.

17 Paid life membership

17.1 The Company in general meeting, on the recommendation of the directors, may make provision for the granting to members of life membership (paid life membership) on payment by the member of an amount recommended by the directors, and approved by the Company in general meeting, as a reasonable equivalent of payment in advance of an annual subscription over a period of years.

17.2 If the Company provides for paid life membership it is open to any member, and the amount to be paid is the same for any member.

17.3 The Company in general meeting may, on the recommendation of the directors, remove the provision for paid life membership, or change the amount to be paid for it, but this does not affect the rights of members who were granted paid life membership while the provision was in force.

18 Register of members

[compare sections 168 and 169]

- 18.1 The Company must keep a Register in accordance with the Act.
- 18.2 The following must be entered in the Register in respect of each member:
- (1) the full name of the member;
 - (2) the postal address, facsimile number and electronic mail address, if any, of the member;
 - (3) the category of membership;
 - (4) the date of admission to and cessation of membership;
 - (5) the date of last payment of the member's annual subscription;
 - (6) the full name, address and electronic mail address of the member's nominated representative; and
 - (7) such other information as the directors require.
- 18.3 Each member and nominated representative must notify the secretary in writing of any change in that person's name, address or electronic mail address within 1 month after the change.

19 Recognition of supporters

- 19.1 The directors may, as they see fit, establish, maintain and operate a system to recognise supporters of the Company who are not members of the Company.
- 19.2 Without limiting the generality of rule 19.1, the system may include a procedure for, and appropriate terms and conditions for, such supporters indicating that they are a supporter (howsoever described) of the Company.

Application fee and annual subscription

20 Application fee

- 20.1 The application fee payable by each applicant for membership is the sum the directors determine for each category of membership.

21 Annual subscription

- 21.1 The annual subscription payable by a member of the Company is the sum the directors determine from time to time.
- 21.2 All annual subscriptions are due and payable in advance:
- (1) on the anniversary of the date that the member becomes a member of the Company; or
 - (2) if the directors so determine by ordinary resolution, on 1 July in each year (and a pro rata payment of the annual subscription is or will be payable by members to cover the period between the next or last renewal of the annual subscription on the anniversary of the date that the member becomes a member of the Company and the next 1 July after that date).

21.3 No annual subscription is payable by any life member.

22 Unpaid annual subscriptions

22.1 If:

- (1) the annual subscription of a member remains unpaid for 2 months after it becomes payable; and
- (2) a notice of default is given to the member following a resolution of the directors to do this;

the member ceases to be entitled to any of the rights or privileges of membership but these may be reinstated on payment of all arrears if the directors see fit.

Cessation of membership

23 Resignation

23.1 A member may resign from membership of the Company by giving written notice to the secretary.

23.2 The resignation of a member takes effect on the date of receipt of the notice of resignation or any later date provided in the notice.

24 Failure to pay

24.1 If a member has not paid all arrears of annual subscriptions under rule 21 or, if paid, the member's rights and privileges are not reinstated under rule 22.1:

- (1) the member remains liable for all the obligations and liabilities of membership until the expiration of 6 months after the date of notification under rule 22.1(2); and
- (2) the member ceases to be a member and the member's name must be removed from the Register at the expiration of the 6 month period.

25 Cessation of membership

25.1 A member ceases to be a member:

- (1) if it is wound up or is otherwise dissolved or deregistered; or
- (2) if it is expelled under rule 26.

25.2 A life member ceases to be a member:

- (1) for members generally, in accordance with rule 25.1; or
- (2) if the directors, for any reason, request in writing the resignation of the member and the member does not resign within 2 months after the request is sent.

26 Disciplining members

26.1 If any member:

- (1) wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this constitution; or
- (2) is guilty of any conduct which, in the opinion of the directors, is unbecoming of a member or prejudicial to the interests of the Company;

the directors may resolve to censure, fine, suspend or expel the member from the Company and, in the case of expulsion, to remove the member's name from the Register.

26.2 In exercising their powers under rule 26.1 the directors must not fine a member an amount exceeding the annual subscription of a full member.

26.3 At least 1 week before the meeting of the directors at which a resolution of the nature referred to in rule 26.1 is passed the directors must give to the member notice of:

- (1) the meeting;
- (2) what is alleged against the member; and
- (3) the intended resolution.

26.4 At the meeting and before the passing of the resolution, the member must have an opportunity of giving orally or in writing any explanation or defence the member sees fit.

26.5 A member may, by notice in writing lodged with the secretary at least 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered by the directors, elect to have the question dealt with by the Company in general meeting and in that event, a general meeting of the Company must be called for that purpose.

26.6 If at the meeting a resolution to the same effect as the resolution which was to be considered by the directors is passed by a majority of 2/3 of those present and voting (and the vote must be taken by secret ballot), the member concerned must be punished in the manner resolved and in the case of a resolution for expulsion the member is expelled and the member's name must be removed from the Register.

26.7 If any member ceases to be a member under rule 26.6, the directors may reinstate the member and restore the name of that member to the Register upon and subject to any terms and conditions they see fit.

27 Effect of cessation of membership

27.1 If any member ceases to be a member under this constitution, the member remains liable to pay to the Company for:

- (1) any money which, at the time of the member ceasing to be a member, the member owes to the Company on any account; and
- (2) any sum not exceeding $100 for which the member is liable under rule 8 of this constitution.

Meetings of members

28 Circulating resolutions

[compare section 249A]

- 28.1 This rule 28 applies to resolutions which the Act, or this constitution, requires or permits to be passed at a general meeting, except a resolution under section 329 of the Act to remove an auditor.
- 28.2 The Company may pass a resolution without a general meeting being held if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- 28.3 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by members if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 28.4 The resolution is passed when the last member signs.
- 28.5 If the Company receives by facsimile transmission a copy of a document referred to in this rule 28 it is entitled to assume that the copy is a true copy.

29 Calling of general meeting

[compare sections 250N, replaceable rule 249C and section 249D]

- 29.1 A majority of directors may call a general meeting whenever they see fit.
- 29.2 Except as permitted by law, a general meeting, to be called the annual general meeting, must be held at least once in every calendar year.
- 29.3 Except as provided in the Act, no member or members may call a general meeting.

30 Amount of notice of meeting

[compare section 249H]

- 30.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act as to short notice, at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting must be given in writing to those persons who are entitled to receive notices from the Company.

31 Persons entitled to notice of general meeting

[compare sections 249J(1) and 249K, and replaceable rule 249J(2)]

- 31.1 Written notice of a meeting of the Company's members must be given individually to:
- (1) each member entitled to vote at the meeting;
 - (2) each director; and
 - (3) the Company's auditor.
- 31.2 The Company is only required to give notice of general meetings to those persons entitled to receive notice under this constitution and the Act.

32 How notice is given

[compare sections 249J(3) and 249J(3A)]

32.1 The Company may give the notice of meeting to a member:

- (1) personally;
- (2) by sending it by prepaid regular post to the address for the member in the Register or the alternative address (if any) nominated by the member;
- (3) by sending it to the facsimile number or electronic address (if any) nominated by the member;
- (4) by sending it by other electronic means (if any) nominated by the member; or
- (5) by notifying the member in accordance with rule 32.2.

32.2 If the member nominates:

- (1) an electronic means (nominated notification means) by which the member may be notified that notices of meeting are available; and
- (2) an electronic means (nominated access means) the member may use to access notices of meeting;

the Company may give the member notice of the meeting by notifying the member (using the nominated notification means):

- (3) that the notice of meeting is available; and
- (4) how the member may use the nominated access means to access the notice of meeting.

33 When notice is given

[compare replaceable rules 249J(4) and 249J(5)]

33.1 A notice of meeting sent by prepaid regular post is taken to be given:

- (1) if sent by prepaid regular post from within Australia to an address in Australia, on the 6th business day (at the address to which it is posted) after posting; or
- (2) if sent by post to an address outside Australia or sent by post from outside Australia, on the 7th business day (at the address to which it is posted) after posting.

33.2 Except as provided by rule 33.3, a notice of meeting given to a member under rule 32.1(3) is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent.

33.3 A notice of meeting given to a member under rule 32.1(3) is not effective if:

- (1) in the case of service by facsimile, the Company's facsimile machine issues a transmission report that the transmission was unsuccessful;
- (2) in the case of service by electronic mail, the Company's computer reports that delivery has failed; or
- (3) in either case the addressee notifies the Company immediately that the notice was not fully received in a legible form.

37 Accidental omission to give notice

[compare section 1322(3)]

- 38.1 The directors may postpone the holding of any general meeting whenever they see fit (other than a meeting requisitioned by members as provided by the Act) for not more than 42 days after the date for which it was originally called.

38.2 Whenever any meeting is postponed (as distinct from being adjourned under rule 40.3 or rule 41.3) the same period of notice of the meeting must be given to persons entitled to receive notice of a meeting as if a new meeting were being called for the date to which the original meeting is postponed.

39.1 The Company may hold a meeting of its members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

40 Quorum

[compare replaceable rule 249T]

40.1 Subject to rule 40.5, the quorum for a meeting of the Company's members is four (or such higher number of members as determined by the members in general meeting) of all members entitled to vote. The quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.

40.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, individuals attending as proxies, attorneys or body corporate representatives are counted. However, if a member has appointed more than 1 proxy, attorney or representative, only 1 of them is counted. If an individual is attending both as a body corporate representative and as a proxy or attorney, the individual is counted only once.

40.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting set out in the notice of meeting:

- (1) where the meeting was called by the members or upon the requisition of members, the meeting is dissolved; or
- (2) in any other case, the meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place the directors specify. If the directors do not specify 1 or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:
 - (a) if the date is not specified – the same day in the next week;
 - (b) if the time is not specified – the same time; and
 - (c) if the place is not specified – the same place.

40.4 If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

41.2 Where a general meeting is held and:

- (1) there is no chairperson of the Company; or

- (2) the chairperson is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act;

the directors present may appoint 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting and in default of their doing so the members present may appoint any 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting.

- 41.3 The chair may, at any time during the meeting, adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and any place. In exercising this discretion, the chair may, but need not, seek the approval of the members present. Unless required by the chair, no vote may be taken or demanded by the members present in respect of any adjournment.
- 41.4 The chair of the meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at that meeting. The rulings of the chair of a meeting on all matters relating to the procedure and conduct of the meeting are final and no motion of dissent from those rulings may be accepted.

Proxies and body corporate representatives

43 Who can appoint a proxy

[compare mandatory rule 249X]

- 43.1 A member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the Company's members may appoint an individual or a body corporate as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting. The proxy must either be another member of the Company or the chair of the meeting.

44 Rights of proxies

[compare section 249Y]

- 44.1 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:
- (1) to speak at the meeting;
 - (2) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
 - (3) to join in a demand for a poll.
- 44.2 If a proxy is only for a single meeting it may be used at any postponement or adjournment of that meeting, unless the proxy states otherwise.
- 44.3 A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.
- 44.4 A proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

45 When proxy form must be sent to all members

[section 249Z]

- 45.1 If the Company sends a member a proxy appointment form for a meeting or a list of persons willing to act as proxies at a meeting:
- (1) if the member requested the form or list – the Company must send the form or list to all members who ask for it and who are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting; or
 - (2) otherwise – the Company must send the form or list to all its members entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting.

46 Appointing a proxy

[compare section 250A and Corporations Regulations 2001 reg 2G.2.01]

- 46.1 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed or otherwise electronically authenticated (as referred to in regulation 2G.2.01 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 and in rules 46.2 and 46.3) by the member making the appointment and contains the following information:
- (1) the member's name and address;
 - (2) the Company's name;
 - (3) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (4) the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

An appointment may be a standing one.

- 46.2 An electronically authenticated appointment of a proxy must in addition to rule 50.1:

46.4 An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company.

46.5 An appointment may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does:

- (1) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- (2) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- (3) if the proxy is the chair – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way; and
- (4) if the proxy is not the chair – the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a member, this rule 46.5 does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes the person holds as a member.

46.6 An appointment does not have to be witnessed.

46.7 A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

47 Form of proxy sent out by Company

47.1 A form of proxy sent out by the Company may be in a form determined by the directors but must:

- (1) enable the member to specify the manner in which the proxy must vote in respect of a particular resolution; and
- (2) leave a blank for the member to fill in the name of the person primarily appointed as proxy.

47.2 The form may provide that if the member leaves it blank as to the person primarily appointed as proxy or if the person or persons named as proxy fails or fail to attend, the chair of the meeting is appointed proxy.

47.3 Despite rule 47.1 an instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form or in a form that is as similar to the following form as the circumstances allow:

 - (4) the member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party;

- 69.3 If a ballot is required, the ballot must not be conducted in such a way as to require members voting for one candidate to also vote for another candidate, provided however that this will not prevent a member from being required to express a preference among individual candidates in order to cast a valid vote.

- (1) does not exercise a casting vote; or
